

School-Based Youth Health Nurse

New School Based Youth Health Nurse Jordan and Jess starts at Mabel Park State high School

School Based Youth Health Nurse Program

Children's Health Queensland's School Based Youth Health Nurse (SBYHN) program provides free and accessible healthcare services to state secondary school students. It is a confidential, voluntary, and brief intervention service.

👉 School Based Youth Health Nurse office can be found in the Admin building (Health Clinic) Wednesday, Thursday and Fridays

To make an appointment to see the nurse, students can:

👉 Email: nurse.mabelpark@health.qld.gov.au

👉 Self-Refer via this link: School Based Youth Health Nurse - Young Person Self-Referral

Or scan the QR code

👉 For more information, visit <https://bit.ly/chqSBYHN>

School Based Youth Health Nurse Service

About Us

We are Registered Nurses employed by Children's Health Queensland

We promote the health and wellbeing of young people and the school community through health promotion and increasing health literacy.

What we do

- Health promotion
- Classroom health education
- Individual consultations
- Health resources for staff, students & families
- Referrals to external health services

What we talk about:

Smoking, Drinking & other drugs

Sexual Health

Relationships & Emotions

Healthy Eating & Exercise

Personal or family problems

Growth & Development

We are a free health service that is confidential and voluntary

Last updated: May 2026

